

Team Fox Meadow Captures Spring Pro-Am; MacKinnon and MacKinley Pro-Pro Champs

A fantastic start to the season ... Cabot Links!

The 5th Annual Cobra Puma PGA Spring Pro-Am was once again a phenomenal event thanks to the support of Cobra Puma Golf.

Dave Burgess, Director of Marketing for Cobra Puma Golf, stated "This is a great event at a great location with a great format ... PGA professionals playing with their amateur team members. This fun atmosphere speaks directly to our brand and we are pleased to be involved."

It was a great two days at Cabot ... Cobra Puma was very generous once again in providing prizes at the Spring Pro-Am and the amateur first tee gift was enhanced by Dormie Workshop.

Cabot Links continues to grow in popularity and recognition throughout the golf world and again was a gracious host. We are fortunate to have such an opportunity in our back yard.

Those in attendance enjoyed themselves a great deal and everyone is already looking forward to next year.

Dave Burgess (CPG); Team Fox Meadow - Mark Cameron, Jimmy Publicover, Shawn MacDougall, Trevor Giggey (PGA)

Team Fox Meadow, with amateurs Mark Cameron, Jimmy Publicover, Shawn MacDougall and PGA Professional Trevor Giggey captured the Cobra Puma Spring Pro-Am.

After round one, they were tied with Team Ken-Wo led by PGA Professional Derek MacKinnon and held on to finally win by three strokes over Team Bell Bay with amateurs Curtis Dolhanthy, John Pino, PGA Professional Zach Rodrigue (PGA) (missing - Chris Lawand).

Another stroke back finishing third (retrogression) was Team Kingswood with amateurs Mark Cossaboom, Matt Veysey, Brian Dalrymple and PGA Professional Josh Landine.
